

Roped a Bear.

It isn't often that a bear dies at the end of a rope in New Mexico, but last Saturday night Harry Hazelwood and H. L. Dotson, as they were riding along near Bald mountain, by moonlight saw a bear and immediately gave chase. There is considerable brush out in that country and the bear led them a merry chase through the brush.

They kept up the pursuit for about two hours, at the end of which time they were slightly disfigured but had the bear securely roped. Bear stories have been getting pretty common of late, but this one is quite out of the ordinary line.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, An all wise Providence has removed from our midst our fellow citizen and townsman, Troilus Stephens, and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the republicans of precinct No. 2, in mass meeting assembled, to express our appreciation of our deceased fellow citizen and townsman as a man and citizen. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Troilus Stephens this community has lost one of its most honored citizens; that the poor and needy have lost their best and truest friend; that the republican party has lost a staunch and steadfast worker and member; his widow a loving and kind husband and his children an indulgent and loving father; that the condolence of this mass meeting is tendered to the widow and children of the deceased; that a copy of these resolutions be given to the Enterprise, Southwest Sentinel and EAGLE newspapers and a copy be presented by the committee to the widow of deceased.

Geo. D. LINCOLN,
H. H. STANLEY,
Wm. E. WATSON.

O. C. Hinman went out quail hunting the other day. He succeeded in bagging 32 of these birds in less than two hours and wants to see the fellow who has beaten this record this season.

About 1,500 head of cattle were shipped from this place last week. They were shipped to Dodge City, Kas., and from that point will be driven to the strip. There were about fifty different brands in the shipment.

The ball which was given last Friday evening under the management of the Silver social club at the rink was largely attended. Most of the people from outside points who witnessed the laying of the corner stone of the new normal school building in the afternoon were present at the ball. The special train from Deming was held until the small hours of the morning to allow those who wished to dance to enjoy themselves. The lodge rooms, where the secret orders of the city had provided lunch for all the visitors, were kept open until the close of the ball and several hundred shared the hospitality of the lodges.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

(Concluded from page 6.)

Fleming resided in the second district but it was finally decided that he did. The vote resulted as follows:

Taylor 42
Moulton 32
Fleming 16

The ballot having resulted in no choice, another ballot was ordered with the following result:

Taylor 58
Moulton 30
Fleming 4

Mr. Taylor, of the lower Mimbres, was then declared the nominee for commissioner from the second district.

For commissioner from the third district the name of Israel King was placed before the convention and he was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. King took the platform and stated that he did not believe there had ever been a more favorable time for the election of a republican ticket in this county since he had been here and recommended republicanism as a remedy for all the ills of the country at the present time.

For county surveyor James T. Reed was nominated by acclamation.

Dr. Feagle of Silver City was nominated for coroner by acclamation.

Dr. Feagle ascended the platform and stated that he considered himself capable of discharging the duties of the responsible office of coroner.

Geo. D. Lincoln nominated for representative from Grant county D. P. Carr, and J. E. Sheridan nominated R. P. Barnes.

The ballot resulted as follows:

Carr 52
Barnes 39

Barnes moved that the nomination be made unanimous and the motion was carried.

Carr was called for and came forward and thanked the convention for the nomination. He said that he believed he was going to be elected.

The following delegates were elected to the Socorro convention:

S. M. McClaren, Don: H. Kedzie, P. H. McDermott, A. B. Laird, D. C. Hobart, H. H. Betts and J. D. Bail.

These delegates were empowered to act as delegates in the district conventions to nominate candidates for the legislature.
